has himself used in his own extensive private practice with the most startling success. Though for years have passed his name has never been found and with it thousands of weak men longed for the doctor who would send the formula entirely free to any man who writes him for it, and they will find it a gift of lasting value. It is good for sexual weakness, loss of vitality, loss of force, prostatic trouble, night sweats, inability to perform the sexual act, nervous conditions that result in the sexual system, and all the ailments that result from the sexual system. It creates an immediate action, and restores the sexual system, and the man of 40 as good as 25, and the young man gains energy, health, and vigor. It makes a few weeks, regardless of the cause of the ailment.

FORMER OFFICIAL CONFESSES

Grand Rapids Water Scandal Promises Sensations.

Grand Rapids, Mich., Nov. 14.—Lant M. Salisbury, former City Attorney, has confessed to the whole of his connection with the famous water scandal of two years ago in this city. The former water master, who was arrested on the charge of having received a bribe of $10,000 from the city of Grand Rapids, has confessed to the whole of his connection with the famous water scandal of two years ago in this city. #### W. L. ELKINS'S WILL FILED.

Provides for a Home for Daughters of Dead Freemasons. Philadelphia, Nov. 14.—The will of the late William L. Elkins, the multimillionaire traction magnate and financier, was filed with the Register here to-day. The estate is valued at $100,000 and upwards, but is believed to be worth $200,000. A will provides for the establishment of an orphanage in this city for female orphans of Free masons, to be managed by the Masonic Home of Pennsylvania. The sum of $200,000 is to be expended on the building. No mention of an endowment appears in the will.

Found Hanging in Barn.

Madison, Ind., Nov. 14.—Alonzo Tiller, a farmer, was found dead, hanging in a barn, yesterday. The body was found by a neighbor, who reported the discovery to the local authorities. The cause of death is not yet known.

PLAN A SWEDISH VILLAGE.

Stockholm Men Seek Concession for a Novel Display. Application has been made to the World's Fair by I. Schluter and J. Roger of Stockholm for a concession to build a Swedish Village, either on the Pike or on a site within the Exposition grounds. They are in St. Louis to arrange details for securing the concession. The Swedish Village, it is claimed, will be something absolutely novel in the concession line. It will represent a typical settlement in the heart of Sweden, in which characteristic architecture, customs, games, and people will be shown.

FRENCH ARCHITECT ARRIVES.

Andre Vincent Will Supervise Furnishing of National Pavilion. Andre Vincent, architect of the French section of fine arts at the World's Fair and inspector of the French national pavilion, arrived in St. Louis yesterday, to remain until the opening of the Exposition. He will supervise the furnishing of the French section of the Art Palace. Mr. Vincent conferred yesterday with Halstead, chief of the department of art, and Chief Miller of the Department of Mural Decoration.

MANY SCOTS ARE COMING.

Burns Cottage Association Advocates "Scotland Day" at World's Fair. The Burns Cottage Association is receiving notices from many Scottish societies which intend to visit the World's Fair, and their corporate capacities, in one case 50 strong. There will probably be a "Scotland Day" in honor of the many Scots that are coming. The articles intended for the historical and literary museum are being collected and will be of great interest to lovers of Scottish literature and students of Scottish history. The number of clubs, clans and Celtic societies in the United States is very large. One society in Boston is now 25 years old, and is said to be stronger and more useful to its members than ever.

Blanchi Meets Francis.

Giovanni Blanchi, Royal Italian Commissioner General to the World's Fair, who arrived in St. Louis Friday evening, spent yesterday at the Administration building in conference with Exposition officials relative to Italy's exhibit space allotment. He called on President Francis, to whom he presented his credentials. Later he met Director of Exhibits F. J. V. Skiff and Director of Works Isaac S. Taylor. ## ENTERTAIN EDITORS BUILDING.

Southwestern Association Guests of State Commission in Rooms of Pavilion.

W. W. WITTER TOASTMASTER.

Gives Assurance That Buckeyes Will Leave Nothing Undone to Make Exposition a Success.

Iowa enjoys the distinction of being the first State to entertain guests in the World's Fair building. The Exposition Commission of that State yesterday was host at a luncheon, given in honor of the Southwestern Iowa Editorial Association, in the rooms of the Iowa pavilion.

The building is practically completed. A little work in the dome, and about the outside remains to be done, but most of the rooms are ready for furnishings and decoration. The structure is one of the most expensive and beautiful on the Platteau of States.

In the main apartment at the west end of the pavilion, long tables were placed. They were elaborately decorated with flowers, ribbons and a handsome service. Covers for about 100 guests were laid, and all the seats were taken. Nearly half of the guests were women.

W. W. Witter, chairman of the Iowa Commission's Press and Publicity Committee, presided as toastmaster. He opened the speaking with an address of welcome, in the course of which he called attention to the fact that the first of the World's Fair State buildings on the fair grounds was that of Iowa.

"Iowa has been in the front rank" of States participating in the World's Fair," said Mr. Witter. "Our citizens have taken as much interest in the enterprise as those of any other State. They will leave nothing undone to make the Exposition a success. Iowa is the first State to complete its building and entertain in it." President David R. Francis responded on behalf of the Exposition management. He complimented Iowa upon the important part it has taken in the World's Fair. Frederick W. Lehman of the Exposition directory and a former resident of Iowa made the principal address.

Mr. Lehman was a member of the committee of ten, the report of which caused the decision to celebrate the centennial of the Louisiana Purchase with an international exposition. He outlined the history of the Fair, dwelling particularly upon the part Iowa have taken in bringing it to its present advanced state of progress.

Before the guests took their seats, the divine blessing was asked by Elder Frederick H. Smith, a member of the Southwestern Iowa Editorial Association and editor of the Mormon Journal published at Lamoni, Ia. Elder Smith is a son of Joseph Smith, head of the Joseph Smith branch of the Mormon Church.

Short addresses were made by Edward E. Egan of Atlantic, Ia., and I. N. Bear of Osceola, Ia., both members of the association. J. J. McGee, Chief of the World's Fair Department of Anthropology, and Mark Bennett, Chief of the Press Bureau, also made addresses. After luncheon the visiting Iowans were taken to Shaw's Garden and other points of interest in the city.

GOV. AND MRS. THOMPSON HERE.

Will Be Present at Formal Acceptance of Oklahoma Building.

Governor Thompson B. Ferguson, accompanied by Mrs. Ferguson, and the entire Oklahoma World's Fair Commission, reached St. Louis yesterday to take part in the ceremonies accompanying the formal acceptance of Oklahoma's building, which takes place to-morrow. Besides Governor and Mrs. Ferguson, the party consists of Joseph Melberger, Chief of the Oklahoma Territory, and Fred L. Wagner of Guthrie. Yesterday the Oklahomans visited the World's Fair grounds and inspected their building. The commission is ready to install the exhibit.

Members of Oklahoma's Territorial Board of Education and several other Territorial officials will arrive in the city to-morrow morning to take part in the dedication. The exercises will commence at noon, and will consist of speeches and a flag raising.

PROMINENT BUSINESS MEN WHOSE SUPPORT IS VITAL TO SUCCESS OF VARIOUS CHURCHES.

ST. LOUIS BUSINESS MEN WHO FIND TIME TO PAY MUCH ATTENTION TO THINGS RELIGIOUS.

the member are complements of each other.

It might be said that St. Louis has her ministerial business men. It is certain that there are business men, working in their offices on their desks all day, who many evenings of each month come near performing the functions of a minister, going out into some mission to deliver addresses upon religious topics, to do personal work among the men they there meet, who have been less fortunate than themselves, and pointing out the way to reform and better things.

With many this work is not regarded wholly as duty. It is a pleasure, and many count it a privilege. In many of the downtown mission night after night may be found men who can write their checks for enough to buy outright much of the church property of the city. With their name they could employ evangelists and singers to go into the missions and take their places.

They could fit out the downtown retreats of the congregation to perform baptism, and at the same time an ordained minister. Not alone in the mission field are their efforts shown, but in the city itself. He practically founded the institution, and in all his connection has not received no emoluments for his services, but has contributed largely to place the church upon the firm basis it now occupies.

Mr. Pittman for more than three years has been the minister of the Second Christian Church at Eleventh and Tyler streets. WILL GIVE HOUSE AND LOT IF MARRIAGE IS PROVEN.
Fred Drease Searches License Records for Evidence of Father's Second Nuptials.
Whether Charles Drease, a lively stable proprietor, residing at No. 2323 Texas avenue, is married or single is a question that is bothering his son and partner, Frederick Drease, and his neighbors.
Drease himself will not deny the report of his marriage and has offered a house and lot to any who can prove it. Fred Drease has started out to win the prize, and visited the Clayton Marriage License office yesterday afternoon in search of information.
While at the St. Louis County seat, Fred said that his father and Mrs. Onelheim, his housekeeper, departed without giving any explanations on October 22 and while they were gone, a report was circulated that his father had been killed. Fred Drease was pained with questions when he returned, but refused to discuss the matter.
The report grew however and a crowd gathered around the Drease home the evening after he returned to charivari him. Fred says that the demonstration angered his father and that he drove the merry-makers away with a shotgun.
No record could be found in Clayton of any license having been issued to Drease, but the son was not discouraged and will continue his search for other license of his father, as he is desirous of winning the house and lot.
When informed last night of his son's statements Charles Drease said that he would not discuss the matter.

CRAZY SNAKE'S BAND AGAIN.
Protest Against Allotments and Declare for Tribal Ownership.
WASHINGTON, Nov. 14.—A delegation of Creek Indians, waited on Commissioner Jones of the Indian Bureau, this morning, to present the petition of the protesting element in the Creek Nation against the allotment of lands to the individual Indians.
This is the same purpose which brought Crazy Snake and his band of Crooks to Washington about a year ago, and the delegation which called at the office this morning is part of the Crazy Snake band. It represents a minority of the Indians who declare that their original treaty with the government assured the continuation of the tribal system of administration and government as "long as the grass grew and the water ran in the streams."
The delegation is composed of Chief, Mr. E. Hale of Tuxedo and Eliza M. K. Peterson of Mapleswood, Samuel B. B. No. 102 of Newstead avenue and Rose Bush of No. 3229 Laclede avenue; Charles B. Davis and John of No. 1221 Chouteau avenue, and Philip Thomas and Della Hailist of East St. Louis.

BIG VERDICT SET ASIDE.
New Trial Granted in Case Against Transit Company.
Circuit Judge Ferris yesterday sustained a motion for a new trial in the case of Carrie Davidson, who obtained a judgment for $15,000 against the St. Louis Transit Company. She was injured at Grand and Finney avenues, September 4, 1902. She was carried to and from the courtroom in a chair, it was claimed that her spine was injured.
Judge Ferris said he thought the only way to stand was on the theory that her injuries are permanent. That could be ascertained, he said, better from the testimony of physicians than from an examination of the plaintiff. The Judge did not consider the testimony conclusive on the point.

ST. LOUIS COUNTY NOTES.
—The Charles Clark country home at the intersection of the Natural Bridge road with the Suburban tracks, was yesterday sold by Perry Post Taylor, Special Commissioner, at the Courthouse door in Clayton for $24,000. The property was purchased by N. B. Weeks of Webster Groves, private secretary to George S. Meyer, which gave rise to a report that the former tobacco magnate intended to use it for a country home.
—Marriage licenses were issued in Clayton yesterday to Charles Lake and Blanche Arneville of East St. Louis; William Enderly of No. 6223 and Myrtle and Alice Greth of Pacific; Charles E. Hale of Tuxedo and Eliza M. K. Peterson of Mapleswood; Samuel B. B. No. 102 of Newstead avenue and Rose Bush of No. 3229 Laclede avenue; Charles B. THE FEAR OF HUMBUNG
Prevents Many People From Trying a Good Medicine.
Stomach troubles are so common and in most cases so obstinate to cure that people are apt to look with suspicion on any remedy claiming to be a radical, permanent cure for dyspepsia and indigestion. Many such people find themselves in their activeness in never being humbugged, especially in medicines.
This fear of being humbugged can be carried too far, so far, in fact, that many people suffer for years with weak digestion rather than risk a little time and money in faithfully testing the claims made of a preparation so reliable and universally used as Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets.
Now Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are vastly different in one important respect from ordinary proprietary medicines for the reason that they are not a secret patent medicine. No secret is made of their ingredients, but analysis shows them to contain the natural digestive ferments, pure aspic peptin, the digestive acids, Golden Seal, bismuth, hydrastis and nux. They are not cathartic, neither do they act powerfully on any organ, but they cure indigestion on the common-sense plan of digesting the food eaten thoroughly before it has time to ferment, sour and cause the mischief. This is the only other name.
Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets taken after meals digest the food. That is there is no food not digested or half digested, no acid, no gas, no acidity, no flatulency, no palpitation of the heart, loss of flesh and appetite and many other troubles which are often called by some other name.
They are sold by druggists everywhere at 50 cents per package.

Rheumatism Cured Without Medicine.
Treatment FREE—On Approval.
Every reader of The Republic can try a pair of Magic Foot Drafts, famous all over the world for curing every curable kind of rheumatism—chronic or acute, muscular, sciatic, lumbago, gout, etc., no matter where located or how severe. They almost always cure the makers' decision to take all the risk. Try the Drafts. You don't take all the risk. You are satisfied with the help you receive. They are sent to you—free—far better and surer than any medicine.
